

SIDE 1

GONNA HUSTLE YOU..... Brian Wilson

DON'T YOU JUST KNOW IT Brian Wilson

HIDE YOUR LOVE AWAY Jan Berry

SIDE 2

A TEENAGE BAT (WHY MUST I BE)..... A Recording Session

GONNA HUSTLE YOU (Brian Wilson)

Recorded at Conway Recorders late 1962 featuring Brian Wilson on lead vocals. "Gonna Hustle You" eventually became "The New Girl In School" which Jan and Dean subsequently recorded and released in 1964.

DON'T YOU JUST KNOW IT (Huey Smith-Gene Vincent)

A big hit for Huey "Piano" Smith in 1958, "Don't You Just Know It" was originally recorded by Jan Berry in January 1966 for Liberty Records. This version dates from 1970 when Jan and Brian Wilson collaborated on the song. It remained unreleased until 1973 when it appeared on Ode Records (#66034) simply under the name JAN. The version included here is Brian singing the song prior to Jan adding his vocals.

HIDE YOUR LOVE AWAY (John Lennon-Paul McCartney)

Reportedly recorded in early 1966 prior to Jan's automobile accident.

A TEENAGE BAT (WHY MUST I BE) (Jan Berry)

Recorded January 1966 for Liberty Records as part of the then proposed album 'Jan & Dean Meet Batman'. Also recorded at the same session was 'The Joker' and 'Don't You Just Know It'. 'A Teenage Bat' bears a strong similarity to Ricky Nelson's 'Poor Little Fool'. This track has never been previously released and was produced by Jan.